

Innisdale Daily Announcements

December 8, 2023

Classics Club	Today is the day- the Semi is just 10 hours away!! If you have not picked up your ticket yet, you MUST claim your ticket TODAY- you need it to enter the dance. If you would like to purchase a ticket, there are a few left: purchase before because there are none at the door! If you have not submitted the guest form for your guest, please bring it to the main office NOW! Remember, doors open at 7:00pm and doors close at 8:00pm. The dance ends at 10:00pm so please arrange transportation. There is a coat check or all items brought to the dance. There are NO locker visits this evening. See you at SEMI!
Cafe	Between today and the 20th visit us in the cafe and be the first to find our naughty elf. The first one to spot him wins a free baked good. Happy Holiday hunting!
Cafe	From December 13 to 20th don't miss out on our delicious Holiday poutine special. We've combined a classic favourite with a holiday flare to get you in the spirit. We will also be offering a variety of holiday baking and alarm clock specials.
Global Perspectives	Hey Grade 10s! Have you heard of Innisdale's Global Perspectives Program? A 5-credit course with a 12U included - where you travel to Cuba AND Europe during the 2nd semester of your grade 11 year? If you're in grade 10 this year and would like more information about this once-in-a-lifetime opportunity, come to a meeting at lunch in Room 223 this coming THURSDAY. See you there!
JEDI	Last night, the Jewish holiday of Hannukah began. Hannukah is an eight-day festival also known as the Festival of Lights. On behalf of JEDI Diversity Team, along with the whole school, we would like to send good wishes to staff and students celebrating Hannukah over the next week.
Senior Girls Volleyball	Hum now Innisdale! Your senior girls volleyball team was absolutely buzzing yesterday. They walked away with a clean sweep in three straight sets against Barrie North! Come watch the girls take on Bradford at home next Tuesday at 3pm. Loud cheering is encouraged! There will be a brief senior girls volleyball meeting today at the beginning of lunch in the gym.
