

Innisdale Daily Announcements

March 18, 2024

JEDI / Diversity Team	For Muslims around the world and here at Innisdale, the holiest month of the year, Ramadan, at the start of March Break. During Ramadan, many Muslims pray often, as a way to deepen their faith. Many Muslims also fast from sunrise to sunset during this month, if their health permits it. For non-Muslim staff and students, please be mindful of others who may be fasting. For any staff and students celebrating Ramadan, Innisdale's Diversity Team sends you best wishes during this important time. Ramadan Mubarak!
Eco Club	Do you enjoy nature and the outdoors? Do you like to help the environment and promote sustainability. If this sounds like you then come on out to room 232 today at lunch to see what the Eco club is all about.
Girls Soccer	Girls soccer starts Tuesday at lunch in the Large gym. Anyone wanting to play must bring their signed forms and be wearing shin guards and running shoes. Please see coach Malolepszy in Room 204 if you haven't signed up yet.
GSA	The GSA is meeting once again in room 120 at lunch! Get ready for today's meeting as we have a little fun with some creativity and colour!
Leadership	Attention Invaders! Staff/Student Hockey game tickets are on sale in ghall during lunch today and sales will continue until Friday. They are $3 and can be paid with cash, debit, or on school cash online. The game will take place on March 26th at the end of period 3 and all of period 4. Get your ticket while you can! You must have a ticket in order to enter the game.  Grade 11s and 12s! The sign up sheet is still located in the library. Please go sign up ASAP so we can confirm the team and give out permission forms.

Innisdale Daily Announcements

March 18, 2024

JEDI / Diversity Team	For Muslims around the world and here at Innisdale, the holiest month of the year, Ramadan, at the start of March Break. During Ramadan, many Muslims pray often, as a way to deepen their faith. Many Muslims also fast from sunrise to sunset during this month, if their health permits it. For non-Muslim staff and students, please be mindful of others who may be fasting. For any staff and students celebrating Ramadan, Innisdale's Diversity Team sends you best wishes during this important time. Ramadan Mubarak!
Eco Club	Do you enjoy nature and the outdoors? Do you like to help the environment and promote sustainability. If this sounds like you then come on out to room 232 today at lunch to see what the Eco club is all about.
Girls Soccer	Girls soccer starts Tuesday at lunch in the Large gym. Anyone wanting to play must bring their signed forms and be wearing shin guards and running shoes. Please see coach Malolepszy in Room 204 if you haven't signed up yet.
GSA	The GSA is meeting once again in room 120 at lunch! Get ready for today's meeting as we have a little fun with some creativity and colour!
Leadership	Attention Invaders! Staff/Student Hockey game tickets are on sale in ghall during lunch today and sales will continue until Friday. They are $3 and can be paid with cash, debit, or on school cash online. The game will take place on March 26th at the end of period 3 and all of period 4. Get your ticket while you can! You must have a ticket in order to enter the game.  Grade 11s and 12s! The sign up sheet is still located in the library. Please go sign up ASAP so we can confirm the team and give out permission forms.