

Innisdale Daily Announcements

March 28, 2024

GSA	International Transgender Day of Visibility occurs every year on March 31st. This day is dedicated to celebrating transgender people, their contributions to society and raising awareness of discrimination faced by transgender people worldwide. Here is a list of only a handful of talented and incredible Transgender Canadians that commit their lives to creating a more inclusive and open environment within Canada: Aaron Devor - A Scholar, author, founder & Academic Director and has a PhD in Sociology and a Bachelors in Psychology. Aiyyana Maracle - Is a performer and visual artist, storyteller, author and scholar. Christina Strang - Consultant, researcher, social worker, and author. Hélène Micheline Montreuil - A Lawyer, professor, writer, radio host, trade unionist and politician. Ivan E. Coyote - Writer, performer, filmmaker, and educator. Kristen Worley - Former world-class cyclist and now an international inclusivity and diversity advisor, educator and public speaker. Rupert Raj - LGBTQ Mental Health Counsellor Private practice, RR Consulting, and has a Bachelor's Degree in Psychology, and a Masters in Counseling in Psychology Susan Gapka - Campaigner for social justice, affordable housing, homelessness, mental health, harm reduction & lesbian, gay, bisexual & trans issues. --- Today, we give A shout out to the transgender people, to the women and men, to the non-binaries, to the gender-less, and all who are in between, may you take pride in who you are. And may you achieve all that you want to achieve. Today, we ask that you pay your respects to all the Transgender people in your life, and recognise the true contribution they provide to the world around them.
Leadership	Attention invaders! Calling out to any musicians, dancers, or singers, there is still time to sign up for ISS Idol! The event takes place on April 5th, so grab a friend, make a band, or go solo, and sign up using a QR code posted throughout the school. Good luck to all contestants!
Leadership	Want to watch your peers perform at ISS Idol on April 5th? Come by the Great Hall today to get your buy out ticket for only $3!
Music	Congratulations goes out to the Innisdale Choir who performed at Ontario Vocal Festival yesterday in Brampton. They were praised for their sweet vocal tone, musicianship and receptiveness in the workshop. A shout out goes to Leah Potje for earning the honour award for Leadership. Congratulations to all on a great day. You represented yourselves and Innisdale very well. See you next week at rehearsal.
Computing contest	In February, several students participated in the University of Waterloo Computing Contest. The results are in! Congratulations to all who participated. Certificates of distinction were earned by Josh Geelen, Terrence Yang in the senior contest. Special mention goes to Jordan Read for acing the junior contest! Well done Innisdale.